

Supplier confirmation regarding stainless steel products

We, Schoch Edelstahl GmbH herewith confirm that our products being subject to any offer to you or any contract with you,

- do not have their origin in Russia,
- we're not exported from Russia,
- when manufactured outside Russia, do not incorporate Russia-originating iron and steel products as covered in any quantity, unless such products manufactured in third countries have been imported to the EU

In case of any changes to the above statement we will notify you immediately.

For all references sold to Verwo plants, we confirm that no Russia steel will be used.

We, Schoch Edelstahl GmbH herewith confirm that upon request of the national competent customs authorities we will provide further adequate evidence of the respective country of origin of the iron or steel inputs covered for deliveries of our products that are of the Regulation (e.g., Mill Test Certificate or any other evidence accepted by the authorities).

With kind regards
